Dayton, OH -- Moving into the future, the North American Power Sweeping Association (NAPSA) continues to re-invent itself to improve service and provide its members with new and exciting products. With the Board's continuing focus of service to the industry, they are pleased to announce their Board of Directors for the remaining 2011-2012 term!

Serving the remaining term as President is James Larko of Katsam Enterprises, St. Louis, MO. Mr. Larko has been a NAPSA member since 2002 and has served an additional term on the NAPSA Board of Directors. Mr. Larko previously served the NAPSA Board as the Vice President and Membership Committee Chair and prior to that as a Contractor Director. Jim continues to bring his experience and broad perspective to the Board.

Carl Barton, Aardvark Sweeping Services, Memphis, TN, is continuing to serve as the Board's Immediate Past President. Carl has been a NAPSA member since 2004 and has served on the Board as the President and Contractor Director. Carl offers NAPSA the historic pillar on which it can continue to build.

Serving the remaining term as the NAPSA Board Vice President is Ken Lindsey, Commercial Power Sweep, Napa, CA. Ken has been a NAPSA member since 2008 and has served as a Contractor Director on the Board for one term. Ken is excited about his new role on the Board.

The term of the NAPSA Treasurer position is being filled by Gregg Blair, Superior Tire and Rubber, Warren, PA. Gregg has been a member of NAPSA since 2004 and has served on the Board as an Associate Director responsible for the marketing and education segments. Gregg will bring insight and experience to the position.
