Used Sweepers Sold With Warranties

This provider is owned by one of the most knowledgeable experts on used sweepers in America. His company 'cherry picks' used sweepers from around the country, refurbishes them and then re-sells them, complete with warranties ranging from 6 months to a year. Also, if you have a good used sweeper you're interested in selling you'll want to contact them.

WorldSweeper.com's Contractor Locator System

Every month, over 4,000 people visit WorldSweeper.com for the latest information in the world of power sweeping. Traffic is widely promoted, including via Google and Yahoo! ad programs. This has produced significant traffic of property managers, etc., looking for sweeping contractors in their local area. As a result, listing your company in the WorldSweeper.com Contractor Locator section may well be the absolute best value in sweeping service ads. Listings range from $99.95 to just $249.95 per year. When potential customers come looking, will your company be there?

Sweeper Fuel Excise Tax Rebate Program

The editor of WorldSweeper.com has navigated through the maze of regulations and paperwork needed to apply for a rebate on the tax portion of the fuel your parking lot sweeper uses. If you haven't applied to get this substantial tax rebate, or you've applied and been turned down, let us handle it for you. Check this box and we'll get back to you with the info.

Websites, Web Hosting, Google/Yahoo! PPC Ad Programs, etc.

The WorldSweeper.com Team knows sweeper websites. In addition to the vast WS.com site, we've designed and hosted dozens more. As many successful sweeping contractors will attest, we know how to build you the website you need in a no nonsense, cost-effective fashion. Check this box and we'll send you our comprehensive website planning guide, at no cost or obligation. This detailed planning guide will be a great help in planning your website no matter where you have your site built.

'Fundamentals of the Power Sweeping Business'

This is the most comprehensive 'how to' book for sweeping contractors available. It's written by Ranger Kidwell-Ross, the editor of WorldSweeper.com and the person who headed up American Sweeper magazine for a decade. The 8.5" x 11" publication offers over 200 pages of information and advice about running an effective – and cost-effective – sweeping operation. Investment is $99.95 + $6 shipping. Fundamentals is offered with a 30-day money back guarantee.
